

COVID-19 LEGAL SERVICES

The COVID-19 public health crisis is affecting every aspect of life. From business and employment, to family and household, to school routines, to communication—nothing is left untouched. During this unprecedented time, the attorneys of Bacon Wilson continue to work hard keeping client interests safe. We are here to answer your questions. Whether you need assistance with protecting your business and employees, estate planning, navigating a custody agreement, or relief from debt, we can help. As a full-service firm, our experienced practice teams can give you a clear assessment of the issues you face, responding quickly to your concerns with comprehensive advice and information. The attorneys listed below are coordinating the firm's guidance for clients relative to the coronavirus.

Employment

Kathryn S. Crouss kcrouss@baconwilson.com

Meaghan E. Murphy mmurphy@baconwilson.com

Providing essential guidance to employers, including in-depth analysis of the Families First Coronavirus Response Act, the new CARES Act, and all aspects of interpreting and implementing employer changes required by new legislation in this rapidly-shifting environment.

Business & Finance

Kenneth J. Albano kalbano@baconwilson.com

Gary G. Breton gbreton@baconwilson.com

Jeffrey I. Fialky jfialky@baconwilson.com

Supporting business clients with skillful, timely strategies and thorough understanding of the specific issues at stake for each company's unique position.

Municipal

Kenneth J. Albano kalbano@baconwilson.com

Mark A. Tanner mtanner@baconwilson.com

Offering strategic guidance for communities in Western Massachusetts as they work to minimize the economic effects of the coronavirus and keep citizens safe.

Estate Planning

Hyman G. Darling hdarling@baconwilson.com

Gina M. Barry gbarry@baconwilson.com

Working diligently to provide clients with the peace of mind granted by a sound estate plan. Where able, the estate planning team is giving priority in the preparation and signing of documents to first responders and those working in the health care field, or those who may be ill.

Family Law

Julie A. Dialessi-Lafley jad@baconwilson.com

Melissa R. Gillis mgillis@baconwilson.com

Delivering crucial information to individuals and families with respect to custody, parenting time, travel between states, home schooling efforts, family court actions, child support and alimony modifications, contempt of court orders, and all related issues.

Bankruptcy

Michael B. Katz mkatz@baconwilson.com

Rebecca M. Mercieri Rivaux

rmercieririvaux@baconwilson.com

Extensive experience guiding business and individual clients through Chapter 7, Chapter 11, and Chapter 13 options.

COVID-19 OFFICE PRACTICES & PROCEDURES

The health and safety of our clients and employees is of the utmost importance to Bacon Wilson. We are monitoring information as it becomes available from state and local authorities and the CDC. We are taking the following steps to continue to provide our employees with a safe work environment, and provide effective service to our clients:

WE ARE OPEN

At this time, all of our offices remain open. But, for the safety of all, we won't greet you with a handshake or other physical contact until this threat is gone.

WE ARE CLEANING

The public areas of our offices are being wiped down after each meeting. Restrooms with soap and water are available in all our offices, as well as hand sanitizer in our reception areas and conference rooms.

WE ARE HEALTHY

If you experience any symptoms of the virus, or become aware that you have been exposed to someone who has contracted the virus, we request that you alert us as soon as possible, so we can determine who you may have been in contact with in our offices.

WE ARE CONNECTED

If you are scheduled for an office visit, we will contact you about the best way to proceed. In many cases, we are able to conduct consultations and meetings electronically, to maintain safe social distancing.

WE ARE WORKING

While we recognize there may be some disruptions that are out of our control, our staff is committed to completing the work for which we have been retained. We expect that, even if quarantined, all matters will move forward on track without any significant delay to our clients.

If you have any concerns, please notify us:

info@baconwilson.com

(413)781-0560

We're all in this together.

